Mark for the Easter Season

Presenter: Fr Michael Trainor

Thursday, April 12, 7.30pm to 9pm

What does the Resurrection mean for early followers of Jesus, and particularly for those of Mark's household? This session will reflect on Mark's radical theology of the Resurrection, very different from what we would expect. Mark's insight will speak into a world of disturbance, distress and disease.

Exploring how dreams weave a rich thread of meaning for our lives. We will consider a dream series and the power of images as portrayed in Lurcat's The Song of the World.

The dream is the small hidden door in the deepest and most intimate sanctum of the soul, which opens to that primeval cosmic night that was soul long before there was conscious ego and will be soul far beyond what a conscious ego could ever reach.
