A GREAT RESOURCE for PARISHES, GROUPS
and ORGANISATIONS!

Dear Friends,

Located on the site where Mary lived from 1872 to 1883, Mary MacKillop Precinct offers you, your families, your parishes and any organisations to which you may belong unique opportunities.

You can ...

- visit Mary MacKillop Museum, which offers an interactive visitor experience as it draws you into the lives of Mary and her courageous early companions and invites you to embrace their spirit
- browse in the museum's Gift Shop, with its tasteful memorabilia plus beautiful gifts and cards for special occasions and milestones
- relax over breakfast, lunch or a coffee in the beautifully situated High Street Café, adjacent to the museum
- walk the self-guided local Mary MacKillop Walk, in the footsteps of Mary and her pioneering companions, visiting local sites that were significant in the early Josephite story.
- pray in the peaceful St Joseph's Chapel, Mary's much-loved place of prayer and solace
- gather for larger meetings, and/or reflection and retreat days in Bethany Centre, a comfortable, gathering space with up-to-date audio visual equipment and its own commercial kitchen.

Please consider coming to Mary MacKillop Precinct to breathe-in Mary's spirit—and be enriched by your time in this oasis in busy Kensington.

Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop 1868

Mary MacKillop Museum

- ◆ Tells the story of Australia's first canonised saint: the pioneering educator, social reformer, the woman with a huge compassionate heart, who, with her companions, transformed the lives of countless people—the Aussie battlers. Her legacy lives on!
- ◆ Offers an interactive visitor experience through the use of sound pens, touch screens and other contemporary story-telling approaches.

Meetings/Retreat Days

As part of Mary MacKillop Precinct, Bethany Centre is a large, versatile, open space which can be tailored for any day/weekend retreats, PD days, formation work, etc.

Catering can be arranged by yourselves, or through the High Street Café staff.

- ◆ Consider using Bethany for small and large group meetings to foster some quiet time for planning, reviewing or reflecting
- ◆ Use your own tailored programme, OR input can be provided by Precinct staff, at a cost
- ◆ Factor in a visit to Mary MacKillop Museum
- ◆ Walk or reflect in the spacious gardens
- ◆ Spend time in the historic St Joseph's Chapel for prayer, and/or Mass.

Breathe in the spirit of Mary MacKillop, a truly remarkable woman, who, since 1866, has inspired countless women, men and young people to make a difference in their small part of the world.

Please note: all Mary MacKillop Precinct facilities are disabled-friendly

The staff of Mary MacKillop Precinct would be very happy to assist you with the planning of your visit.
