'There's a crack in everything,

Presenter: Angela Hazebrook

Wednesday, 17 May 9.30am—12.30pm
Wednesday, 24 May 9.30am—12.30pm

Please note: This program is offered in two parts, however each session also stands alone

Leonard Cohen's song Anthem reminds us that there is hope in times of darkness, that our vulnerability can be a gift.

Drawing on the writings of well-known Irish writer and poet, John O'Donohue, and in particular Eternal Echoes: Exploring our Hunger to Belong, these reflections invite you to embrace your vulnerability and befriend the darkness which holds the mystery of transfiguration.

Part One: Darkness is the cradle of growth and the gift of vulnerability

Part Two: Suffering is the sister of your possibility and out of the Winter comes a new Spring

Woven through these sessions will be the prayers and poems of John O'Donohue and David Whyte with their Celtic connections to nature as being always wrapped in seamless prayer

Living Intentionally:
Reigniting our communion
with all of creation.

Presenter: Jennifer Callanan

Tuesday, 18 July
9.30am—4.00pm

Pope Francis, in Laudato Si', maintains that '...the ecological crisis is also a summons to profound inner conversion.' si-on.' (LS:271) He further declares that 'Many things have to change, but it is we human beings above all who need to change...' (LS 202)

This reflective session will focus on Ecological Conversion, as described in Laudato Si' and draw attention to Pope Francis' summons for:

Thomas Merton and his teachers: Zen Buddhism and the 13th Century Mystic Meister Eckhart. Presenter: Angela Hazebroek

Saturday, 12 August
9.30am—4.00pm

Thomas Merton captured the imagination of young people, in particular, in the years immediately after the Second World War.

Merton's prolific writings on prayer and contemplation, justice and compassion, peace and non-violent activism, and the ways that Eastern and Western spiritualities could complement each other, continue to encourage 21st century seekers of a faith that balances contemplation and action.

We will explore the way that Zen Buddhism led Merton to the 13th Century Dominican Priest and mystic Meister Eckhart and then into a deeper silence and recognition of the essential interconnection of all beings.

Spending a day with Merton is sure to delight, challenge and encourage you in your own journey.

Come Away and Rest Awhile with the Calm and Beautiful Presence of God

Presenter:

Lillian Van Brussel

Saturday, 14 October

9.30am—4.00pm

Jesus said to his disciples

"Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place

Today as modern-day disciples you are invited to rest your soul, relax, become aware of PRESENCE, you with God and God with you.

This will be a day to clear a space for God's action. We don't know what God has in store for us but are we willing to risk what we will find out?

You are invited on this day to engage with opportunities to hear the whisperings of God through prayer, reflection, scripture, music, art and nature in and around this beautiful area including the gardens, the chapel and little nooks you can enjoy and find your quiet place.
